terra vita

- a place to start -

The social promotion "Terra Vita" was born in Force in February 2018 by eight young women and a shoes' craftsman with the aim to support and actively to involve the local population, to offer people different services and the possibility of career choices.
The Association also offers leisure facilities for children, young people and adults through the activation of courses and workshops to extend interests, curiosity and passion and thus to create a moment of socialization and sharing.
